

ATTORNEYS, ACADEMICS, AND THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF TRIAL CONSULTANTS

The Jury Expert is the quarterly trial skills journal of the American Society of Trial Consultants (ASTC). ASTC has been publishing The Jury Expert since 2005 and transitioned to an on-line publication in May, 2008.

The Jury Expert is accepting advertising from providers of services and goods to attorneys and to trial consultants. The Jury Expert focuses on trial skills and improving litigation advocacy and the vast majority of our readers are attorney-litigators. Our readership also includes trial consultant members of the ASTC, academics and law students.

You can find The Jury Expert at www.thejuryexpert.com.

ABOUT THE JURY EXPERT

The Jury Expert was purchased by the American Society of Trial Consultants as a print magazine in 2005. In 2007, we made a decision to publish on-line and discontinued the print version of the publication.

May 2008 introduced the revamped and totally digital magazine to the litigation community. The Jury Expert (TJE) is, in essence, a trial skills magazine.

TJE features relevant research from social scientists via original articles tailored for our attorney readers and then further 'translated' into practical, user-friendly tips and tools for the litigator by ASTC-member consultants.

We also proudly present work by trial consultants on practical tools for voir dire, case presentation, witness preparation, sequencing the narrative, and translating social science constructs into useful and useable sound bytes for the courtroom.

In short, The Jury Expert is user-friendly, accessible 24/7, and serves as both a storehouse of information as well as a community where attorneys come together with academics and consultants in a fashion that is truly unique in the litigation arena.

Subscriptions are free and open to anyone although the majority of our subscribers are attorneys, law students, academic faculty, trial consultants and court personnel.

How often do you publish?

We publish four times a year: February, May, August, and November.

How long will my ads be displayed?

Your ad will be displayed on the internet for a minimum of 90 days and sometimes a few days longer depending on publication timeframes. Your ad will be displayed in the downloadable and forwardable PDF "print" version of the journal for eternity.

Will your ad automatically be linked to your website?

Yes!!!

Do I get a discount if I purchase more than one ad?

Yes, we discount multiple runs. A 10% discount for 2 ads, 20% for 4 ads. (Business cards excluded.)

Do I get a discount for being a current ASTC member?

Yes, you do. You get an additional 5% discount. To become an ASTC member, go to www.astcweb.org. (Business cards excluded.)

Do I have to subscribe to TJE to be an advertiser?

No. But you will probably want to see your ads displayed so you certainly can subscribe to TJE. And subscriptions to TJE are free.

Can I buy your mailing list?

No. Not now. Not ever. Don't even ask.

Are you mainly plaintiff oriented or defense oriented?

The Jury Expert is litigation oriented. We have subscribers from both sides of the bar, consultants who work on both sides of the bar, and articles that address both sides of the bar as well as the middle. Our goal is to support litigation advocacy through education, information, and thorough consideration of all sides to an argument. We want to improve advocacy--not choose sides.

THE JURY EXPERT is published by THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF TRIAL CONSULTANTS

ASTC is formed of professionals who devote themselves to enhancing the effectiveness of legal advocacy. Members work with attorneys in planning all phases of trial—including discovery, trial preparation, and jury behavior. www.astcweb.org/public/index.cfm
